

2011 美東教育學習之旅~小學部成果發表

主題：BRONX ZOO

小學
abc

By Ellin · Lisa

- Species in the Americas and 2 species in the old world.
- They eat pink fish.
- Often stand on one leg.
- Only eat mollusks and bivalves or small fish.

By Kevin · Andrew

- Eat stems, leaves, shoots, and the fleshy fruits .
- Male v.s. Female

By Angel · Molly

- Eat mostly fish, squid, and octopus
- under water 100 meters depth!
- Like a dolphin!

By Sean · Kenny

- Brown bear is the biggest bear in the world.
- It likes to eat salmon.

By Eva · Kelly

- Found along South America.
- Eat small fish, crustaceans, krill, and squid.
- Die due to oil pollution.

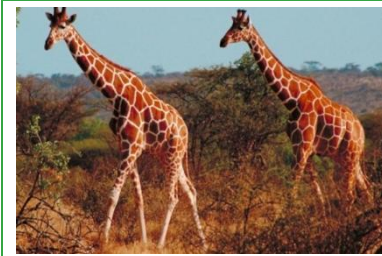

小學
abc

By Yoyo · Jason

- The king of animals
- Human hunting causes lions' the greatest danger.

By Esther · Linda · Winnie

- Eat a lot and often.
- Active in the morning & evening.
- Give birth during the dry season.

By Benson · Daniel

- Polar bear is endangered, so we need to protect our environment. Let them not disappear on earth. We have to do it!

By Melody · Christine

- Social animals in trees.
- Eat fruit, leaves, nectar, and flowers.
- 20~25 days, babies can walk independently.
- Endangered animals!!

By Brian · Kevin

- Herbivore.
- Neighbors: lions, rhinoceros and African elephants.

By Michael · Gene

- We can find them in rainforest.
- If lions are the king of the animal, then the jaguar would be the king who never be caught.

小學
abc

小學
abc